BUNNY AND CLYDE

Megan McDonald, Scott Nash (illustrator)

Children, Ages 6-8

Candlewick Publishing, March 12, 2024

Get ready for a wild ride with Bunny and Clyde! These by-the-rules buddies, a rabbit and a chipmunk, are sick and tired of being good. For once, they want to know what it's like to be baddies—rotten to the core. This is a droll comedy for early readers about an endearingly inept pair of outlaws.

YOU DREAMED OF EMPIRES: A NOVEL

Álvaro Enrigue

Fiction

Riverhead Books, January 9, 2024

One morning in 1519, conquistador Hernán Cortés enters the city of Tenochtitlan – today's Mexico City. Later that day, he will meet the emperor Moctezuma in a collision of two worlds, two empires, two languages, two possible futures.

Álvaro Enrigue sets afire the moment of conquest and turns it into a moment of revolution; the novel so electric and so unique that it feels like a dream.

THE WHITE LADY

Jacqueline Winspear

British Historical Fiction

Harper, March 21, 2023

This heart-stopping novel, set in Post WWII Britain in 1947, follows the coming of age and maturity of former wartime operative Elinor White.

A reluctant ex-spy with demons of her own, Elinor finds herself facing down one of the most dangerous organized crime gangs in London, ultimately exposing corruption from Scotland Yard to the highest levels of government.

GET THE PICTURE: A MIND-BENDING JOURNEY AMONG THE INSPIRED ARTISTS AND OBSESSIVE ART FIENDS WHO TAUGHT ME HOW TO SEE

Bianca Bosker

Non-Fiction

Viking Publishing; February 6, 2024

Intrigued by artists who hyperventilate around their favorite colors and art fiends who max out credit cards to show hunks of metal they think can change the world, Bosker grew fixated on understanding why art matters and how she—or any of us—could engage with it more deeply.
