

NYBG

Join The Friends As We Venture Into Wonderland

Sept 19

The New York Botanical Garden

Head down the rabbit hole as Wonderland: Curious Nature transforms the Garden through the sights, settings, and scents of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland—and step into a botanical experience that grows curiouser and curiouser along the way. See the Garden through Alice's playful and curious eyes. <https://youtu.be/cnxKRnNWZ6Y>

Ticket price includes luxury bus, docent-led tour of Wonderland: Curious Nature, access to the Enid A. Haupt Conservatory, and narrated Tram Tour which offers an overview of the Garden's 250-acre landscape, its history, and its programs.

Lunch is on your own. Dining options include the Hudson Garden Grill (which is offering an a la carte Tea Service to celebrate Wonderland) or the Pine Tree Café which is a more casual menu.

OVERVIEW

Meet at the Oldwick Library to board the bus by 8:15

Docent-Led Tour of the Wonderland: Curious Nature
Botanical experience 10:30

Lunch on your own

Narrated Tram Ride 1:00

Explore Gardens and Gift Shop

Bus departs at 3:00; Return to Oldwick by 4:45

The Friends will present a talk in the Oldwick Library by Jennifer Gross, curator of Wonderland, on Sunday, September 15th, 2:00 in the afternoon, as a preview to our trip. (Talk will be open to those not registered for the trip for $10; the talk is a gift from us to those of you attending the bus trip.)

Ticket Price includes Luxury bus, tour of Wonderland: Curious Nature, access to the Conservatory, narrated Tram Tour, and talk by Curator Jennifer Gross on September 15.
Ticket Price $100

Click on "Paypal" to register online. If you prefer to pay with check, "Registration Form" will bring to you that link.

