

COME TAKE A WALK WITH THE FRIENDS:
The High Line
Thursday September 17, 2026

The High Line is a unique public park in Manhattan, built on a historic, elevated freight rail line that runs about 1.5 miles, from the Meatpacking District to Hudson Yards, with stunning Hudson River views and architectural viewpoints like the 10th Avenue Square amphitheater.

Our professional tour guides will share the park's history, design, and landscape as we stroll, highlighting the unique sculptures, murals, and public art installations that make this elevated park a living outdoor gallery.

Afterwards, you may shop and have lunch in Chelsea Market, or you may choose to visit the Whitney Museum on your own. You will have two independent hours to explore and enjoy.

Register for the trip through Paypal on this site. Note that by clicking the PayPal link you may now also pay with Apple Pay or a credit card.

You may also register by downloading the paper form and submitting it to the library with your check (place in the Friends' mailbox under the bulletin board, or give to the librarian).

Once registered, you will receive updates and final details at least four days prior to the trip (usually sent out on Sunday night}. If you feel you have not received the final update, please check your spam folders—we find that has been the issue for several people.

The bus will leave at 8:00 am on Thursday, the 17th of September. Please make sure we have your email and phone number. (If you have traveled with us before, we have it!)

The tour company recommends bringing bottled water, comfortable shoes, hand sanitizer and being prepared to be outdoors for most of the tour.
